Title: Papal bull

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: Pope Sixtus IV conferred a canonate and prebend on Peter Kempchin. This position had been vacant for three years since the death of John Kindelin. Peter Kempchin delayed taking it up because he didn't expect to receive any income from it for four years. Now, since the four years have passed, Sixtus IV requires him to take up his duties.

Notes: Issued in Rome at St. Peter's, on the last day of October 1475, in the fifth year of the pontificate of Sixtus IV. A note in a different script below the main text says that this document was never put into effect because Peter Kempchin gave up all of his claims on the church. A note on the dorse in the same script as the main text of the document indicates that this letter was addressed to the dean and chapter of St. Martin's in Worms.
